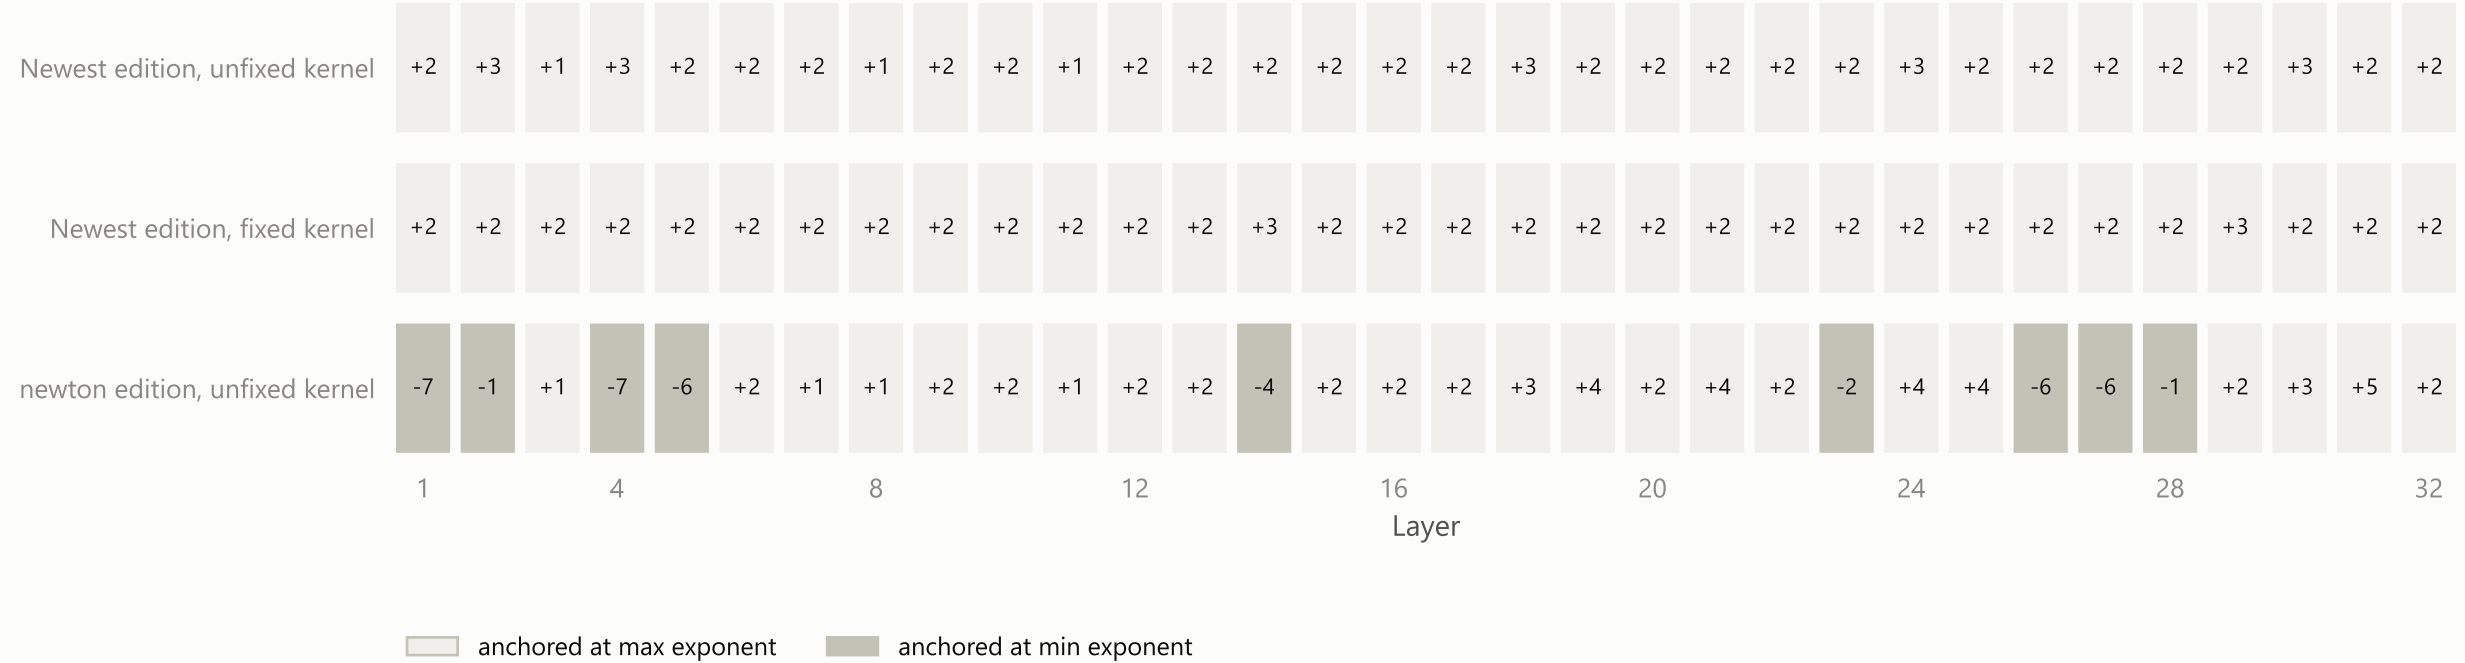
Window chosen at each layer



Number = the anchor exponent: the LUT's top exponent when anchored at max, its bottom exponent when anchored at min. The Newest edition's LUT holds 10 exponents, the newton edition's 16 (both slide an 8-wide window inside it), so the same number is not the same window across editions.